

Urban shopping style with community feel: Feel Urban, Feel Community

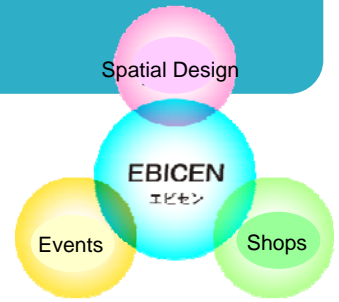

People, goods, and experiences come together to produce new interactions

LaLaport EBINA's central zone

EBICEN

Spatial Design

Situated centrally on the third and fourth floors, EBICEN is a zone with a mosaic of spatial design, shops, and events. As LaLaport EBINA's central zone for creating new community, it aims to be a place that inspires fresh interactions as people meet and make discoveries.

Smiles for kids and parents

EBICEN coasis

Inspired by the desire to create an oasis for kids, EBICEN coasis is a core zone for parents and children. It is a space that is great for children and parents alike.

Spatial Design

Surrounding the central kids play area are children's clothing, toy, coffee, and other shops. The pleasant environment with a woody tone makes it enjoyable not just to shop but also to simply spend time in the area.

Events

Workshops and events appreciated by those raising children will be held to foster the parenting community.

Shops

Children's clothing retailers, toy stores, coffee shops, and more will provide a space for parents and kids to interact.

An enticing place to drop by
EBICEN flatto

The EBICEN flatto zone is an open area to generate new discoveries, encounters, relaxation and exchanges. It will convey new lifestyles by providing experiences and learning for adults through events and stores.

Spatial Design

Mid-century style brick, wood, and iron fixtures help create an atmosphere that appeals to adult tastes. The open store layout pulls the zone together.

Events

Plans include holding workshops for adults and cultural events in which anybody can readily take part.

Shops

Newsworthy stores and coffeehouses are among a selection of shops enticing visitors to leisurely reading a book on their own, mull over travel plans, work on self-improvement, or try something new.
