
Mitsui Fudosan to Participate in the United Nations Global Compact

Mitsui Fudosan Co., Ltd., a leading global real estate company headquartered in Tokyo, announced today that it has signed and registered as a participating company in the United Nations Global Compact, and will join the Global Compact Network Japan, the compact's local network in Japan.

The United Nations Global Compact is a global initiative proposed by the United Nations in which companies and organizations voluntarily take part in realizing a sustainable society by taking responsibility and displaying creative leadership while taking action as a good member of society.

Mitsui Fudosan supports The Ten Principles of the United Nations Global Compact comprised of the four fields of Human Rights, Labour, Environment and Anti-Corruption, and is committed to “successfully establish a sustainable society through the creation of neighborhoods” under the Group's long-term management policy, Vision 2025.

【The Ten Principles of the United Nations Global Compact】

Human Rights	Principle 1: Businesses should support and respect the protection of internationally proclaimed human rights; and Principle 2: make sure that they are not complicit in human rights abuses.
Labour	Principle 3: Businesses should uphold the freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining; Principle 4: the elimination of all forms of forced and compulsory labour; Principle 5: the effective abolition of child labour; and Principle 6: the elimination of discrimination in respect of employment and occupation.
Environment	Principle 7: Businesses should support a precautionary approach to environmental challenges; Principle 8: undertake initiatives to promote greater environmental responsibility; and Principle 9: encourage the development and diffusion of environmentally friendly technologies.
Anti-Corruption	Principle 10 :Businesses should work against corruption in all its forms, including extortion and bribery.